

Irrigation District Operations Manager

Position: Operations Manager

Franklin County Irrigation District is currently seeking candidates to fulfill the Operations Manager Role. This position will train with the current Operations Manager before his retirement. This position requires a flexible and excellent leader, requires some knowledge in engineering as to work well with the District's Engineer on District projects and basic knowledge of pressure and gravity systems. The position also includes compiling the yearly budget, employee management, facilities oversight, community relations, and cooperation with other government agencies.

Salary: Dependent on qualifications. FCID offers a full benefits package.

To apply: Please submit a cover letter, resume, and three references to FCID1@pocketinet.com Attn: John/Genni

509-547-3831